Congratulations to Mr. Walter Oketcho, GCEWL's Exceptional Technical Manager in Uganda

Celebrating 4 Remarkable Years of Excellence

February 2025

We are thrilled to celebrate the outstanding contributions of Mr. Walter Oketcho, our exceptional Technical Manager in Uganda, on his 4th work anniversary. Walter has been a cornerstone of GCEWL's success, going above and beyond his role to drive growth, innovation, and integrity within the organization.

Walter joined GCEWL Uganda as a Technical Engineer in November 2020. Through his dedication and exceptional performance, he was promoted to Technical Manager – Sales Liaison within just two years. Since November 2023, he has held the esteemed position of Senior Technical Manager, overseeing the entire technical department in Kampala. In this capacity, Walter collaborates closely with the owner and CEO, Mrs. Dinese Hannewald, on critical operational tasks. Additionally, since January 2023, Walter has been supporting GCEWL Kenya as Technical Manager, based in Nairobi.

Walter's multifaceted expertise and ability to learn and adapt quickly make him an invaluable asset to our team. As the owner of GCEWL, I am particularly impressed by his broad skill set, impeccable integrity, and unwavering honesty. Walter's commitment to our core corporate values has inspired us to upgrade our team with like-minded professionals who share our vision and mission. In recognition of his remarkable tenure and contributions, Walter will become a shareholder of GCEWL Uganda in 2025 as part of our Employee Ownership program.

At GCEWL, we not only prioritize corporate social responsibility through our Good Water and Good Energy Projects but also contribute to the Ugandan economy by creating skilled jobs with competitive salaries. Through initiatives like our Employee Ownership program, we provide qualified employees access to wealth and long-term growth opportunities. Walter exemplifies the success of these initiatives, inspiring others to aim higher.

Walter's responsibilities are vast, encompassing the oversight of new installations for both water purifiers and solar systems in Uganda and occasionally in Kenya. He is a dedicated trainer, equipping our technical and sales teams with comprehensive knowledge of our products. Walter's support extends to sales team presentations, where his persuasive skills have consistently driven exceptional revenue growth. His ability to attract new customers and nurture relationships with existing clients has significantly boosted GCEWL Uganda's performance.

Reflecting on his journey, Walter shared: "It has been five incredible years since 2020 when I began my journey with GCEWL. These years have been filled with challenges, growth, and countless memorable moments, and I couldn't be more grateful. A huge thanks to my amazing teammates and my CEO, Mrs. Dinese Hannewald, for their constant support and collaboration. She inspires me every day. And, of course, a thanks to myself for pushing through, learning, and evolving every step of the way. At GCEWL, we provide exceptional solutions for safe drinking water and clean energy to our customers. Thank you to all who have been part of this journey."

Please join us in congratulating Walter Oketcho on his remarkable achievements and his unwavering dedication to GCEWL's mission of delivering clean water and sustainable energy solutions. Here's to many more years of success together!
